

ARCHANGEL JOPHIEL

BOTTLE 101 - PALE BLUE/PALE OLIVE

At 12 o'clock (noon) today, 14th December, 2000, Jophiel was born. The Light coming into the heart, a new vibration of the heart, an expansion of the heart and this is what's above and below the Emerald of the heart. It's the possibility of a real uplifting of the heart to come into a new alignment. The difficulties are how often intense feelings of envy and jealousy precipitate us into an increased awareness, an increased awareness enabling us to see many aspects of a situation. It is also an inner dynamic between the male and female aspects within ourselves where the opening of the heart in its expansion goes through the birthing pains of a new level of being. Jophiel supports the whole process of the unfoldment of the heart.

As we welcome him into the Archangelic series he brings with him the awareness of another possibility within the heart, to overcome the difficulties in relation to those feelings of inadequacy, those feelings of not being good enough. Are we prepared to trust the feminine intuitive aspect within us, to step forward into another dimension of our being?

Jophiel augurs a new possibility for the real beginning of a new Millennium. He brings his energies to encompass the end of this year and the beginning of the next and a long awaited illumination of the heart. The Pale Blue/Pale Olive; the first time that the Pale Olive has appeared in the base fraction. It also relates to the Divine Will associated with The Holy Grail where we say "One for all, all for one".

Perhaps the world of Aura-Soma and the unfoldment of what is taking place is only a tiny part of the macrocosm but this movement from Metatron to Jophiel is an expansion, a new understanding in relation to our holographic multi-dimensional nature. That hologram is something that is seeded from our ancestry amongst the stars. Jophiel particularly connects up through the feeling side of our Being, that stellar ancestry, to be able to ground it in this world as we move forwards in a new direction toward our Being of Light. Once we can overcome the limited views, the limited understandings, we may open our hearts to one another, to open to discover new levels of trust.

Part of what is contained within the Pale Olive is to overcome the judgements, to find peace in the subconscious, unconscious mind in relation to the fears that are held there when we don't trust, when we don't allow that possibility for a new space and a new place to enter. This chance has come for us to face the truth of ourselves that we may come into alignment with the Higher Will.

So, in a way, I feel that this is a Christmas gift from the Archangelic realm to the Aura-Soma family as it unfolds in the world. Let us rejoice in that gift. To me it's certainly a very beautiful combination and the modification of the Pale Olive in the base is something that's very special and beautiful in the Aura-Soma range.

Perhaps Jophiel will help us to bring the higher communication through to our feelings and that our feelings can be touched by what is our higher purpose.

With love and light and heartfelt greetings

Mike
