ARCHANGEL RAPHAEL

Bottle 96 - Royal Blue/Royal Blue

The precious pagoda: there's no need to keep searching -
It refracts its multifaceted light in every direction ...
The sage says; be willing to work, pray, and bow down -
And if you do, Heaven can bless you with every reward.

The Archangel Raphael was born at 12.25 pm on 3rd December, 1996 - Royal Blue/Royal Blue.

The higher functions of the mind are brought into being. They are fed in from above. The communication that is fed in from above is feeding into the royal blue energy, which is within the depths of the self. There is a very deep peace lying within that is to be brought out in a communication to the world. The royal blue/royal blue has been something that has been a long awaited dream. It is a dream of a time that is to come when clarity of vision, clarity of hearing, clarity of thought will come into being, for those that aspire, for those that are in the process of transformation at this point in time. Raphael is the creative energy of the Archangelic Realms. He brings this creativity at a time when the potential for awakening is immense.

To find that little bit of pink energy within that blue is to find the potential for the awakening within ourselves. The discipline necessary to overcome the self-consciousness in communication and to open up to the possibility of what that awakening experience may bring.

Each of us has to confront at this point in time our survival issues. Each of us has to confront our security issues. It has to be done in the context of a peace that passeth all understanding.

The return of the blue/blue in the royal blue form is that we may awaken the High Priestess within ourselves with energy, that we may become a receptive vehicle, for that which is poured in from above to communicate with our inner-most Being. Those security issues and survival issues were given to us for a reason, a reason which has to do with an immense balance between what is there and what is required of us. It is potential of awakening which lays within our core that is potential evolvment. Raphael brings the support to Michael and Gabriel. The support that comes from above in the communication that is issued from above and a possibility of seeing clearly what it is that is in front of us upon our way.
