

B97

ARCHANGEL URIEL

Bottle 97 - Gold/Royal Blue

A candle in the breeze casts flicking shadows,
Flurried and blurred they fan out like willow-flowers...
The boy adrift at sea pleads to be picked up
Just learn to be true to yourself, like a raft on the water.

The Archangel Uriel was born at 1 o'clock on December 3rd 1996 quickly arriving to support the energies of Raphael.

The golden light shines in from above. The ancient Wisdom dawns in the conscious mind. Within the unconscious depths of the self is the support of the communication that is flowing in from above. The potential for awakening that lies within as the deep mysteries begin to unfold in the context of the ancient wisdom. That golden light, the sun, is shining into the conscious mind. It is as though the energies from within the Archangel Michael are now able to come up to the conscious mind. The light from the incarnational star dawns upon a new day. This combination would shake together as the deepest Emerald Green; the reminder for those in need of the service from the heart.

Uriel is a combination which speaks very much of our potential, the refinement of the gold within. If we can begin to 'polish' the gold, to refine the inner-most essence of ourselves that the personality may be digested by that essence, our service may be revealed as we begin to awaken within the depth of ourselves to the deep peace that lies within. The authority and strength that lies within our innermost being in relation to the nature of our essence is one that each person can come to know within themselves. Each of us has an innate authority - all we can do is lose it! Part of the lesson of Uriel is to give us the possibility of realising what aspect of wisdom we carry in a conscious way and to find the deep peace in relation to that. But even in silence we are each an expression of what it is that we are within our being.

This bottle speaks of clear seeing with our innermost depths (royal blue). It talks of receiving a communication from above and being able to unfold that in a coherent wisdom in the world (gold). This is a relationship with the whole of the feeling aspect within ourselves and the way in which those feelings are to express themselves through our service to the world. That emerald green is the reminder of the Luciferic nature that did not want to serve. It was his gift of the emerald in our heart that is our interface with the planetary grid. It gives a possibility of the incarnational star unfolding at this point in time in a conscious way. Provided we have the ears to hear and the eyes to see then we might find the peace that lies within the depth of ourselves.

Love as ever,
Mike