Archangel Sandalphon

Bottle 98 - Lilac/Coral
Archangel Sandalphon (Margaret's bottle)
21st June 1998

I ask you to look at your business slowly and carefully,
It's not a good idea to be lazy - it's provocative ...
It's like when a handful of birds are caught in a snare,
They have to learn to see the subtleties of the trap.

The Archangel Sandalphon was born at 1.50 pm on Sunday 21st June 1998
(Father's Day in England).

The transmutation of negativity at a conscious level while we are bringing a new level of co-operation from within the depth of ourselves.

The healing qualities of the Coral bring forward the New Christ energy as we move closer to the new Aeon. The healing of the lilac with the unconditional love of the Christ, brings awareness of our interdependence upon and with all things. The revelation of the sequence of the Archangels seems to be continuing. In this bottle there is incredible joy, insight and bliss.

It is now time for the deepest levels of joy to come through from the depth of ourselves. Hidden in Sandalphon we can find the Archangel Michael bringing the sword of his insight to the earth's grid structure. The Unconditional love in the transmutation process is the gift of Sandalphon. An important secret is revealed through this bottle. When we haven't been able to digest information or experience then Sandalphon can help. Bringing many new levels of assimilation and understanding. An intense healing of the issues to do with unrequited love.

This bottle is also to do with synchronicity, many phenomena to do with this bottle and its birth are in synchronicity. Sandalphon shows new levels of co-operation. The lilac flames burn away intense issues of abuse, releasing the past and offering a promise for the future.

The second level of the Star-Child connecting us with the earth, when the new Christ energy comes to earth.

First thoughts on Sunday afternoon

Love to you all, as ever
